

ITINERARY FOR WEEKEND IN DUBLIN, 2010

3 September Leave Lincoln College after an early breakfast for Heathrow Airport, London.

Arrive Dublin Airport and meet bus for short orientation tour of the city and visit to Guinness Brewery before checking in at Trinity College.

Walk to Dobbins Wine Bar, one of Dublin's established restaurants, for a three-course dinner.

4 September Breakfast in college. Whole day free to explore the city. Optional visit to the Book of Kells and the National Gallery of Ireland. Lunch at the National Gallery.

5 September Breakfast in college. Morning tour into the Irish countryside, over the Wicklow Hills to the lovely monastic site and lake of Glendalough where there is time to go hiking to the end of the lake.

Enjoy a traditional three-course Sunday lunch at Gleniew Hotel.

Visit to Powerscourt, Ireland's grandest country house and gardens.

Depart for the airport for flight back to London Heathrow with transfer by bus to Lincoln College, Oxford.

Cost: $740 per person (Minimum participation of 30 necessary to undertake.)

Cost includes:

- Private bus from Oxford to London Airport
- Flight to and from Dublin
- Private bus from Dublin airport to Trinity College
- One hour orientation drive around Dublin
- Two nights' accommodation at Trinity College with breakfast
- Three-course dinner at Dobbins Wine Bar
- Entrance into the Book of Kells
- Lunch at the National Gallery of Ireland
- Day tour into countryside, stopping for hike at Glendalough
- Traditional lunch at Glenview Hotel
- Entrance into Powerscourt
- Private bus transfers to Dublin airport and from Heathrow back to Oxford
- Services of full-time escort from London back to London
- Airport surcharges and taxes

Not included:

- Lunch Friday, dinner Saturday
- Drinks