

Rebecca Finlayson

EDUCATION

Emory University, Ph.D. in English Literature

- Dissertation: The Politics of Criticism: Poststructuralism and Early Modern Studies
- Focus: early modern literature (i.e. the drama of Shakespeare, Ford, Webster, Jonson); poststructuralist theory and political criticism; gender studies (feminist and queer theory)
- Teaching Fellowship and Tuition Award

Emory University, M.A. in English Literature

Smith College, B.A. in English Literature

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

1998 - Present

Rhodes College, Memphis, Tennessee ASSISTANT PROFESSOR

- Introduction to Literature
- Shakespeare's Major Plays
- Daily Themes: Writing Seminar
- Critical Thinking and Writing
- Tutorial (Writing Center)

1992 - 1997

Emory University, Atlanta, Georgia TEACHING ASSISTANT

- Introduction to Literature
- Renaissance Poetry
- Composition and Rhetoric

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

2008- Present

Director of College Writing

2001 - Present

The Rhodes College Writing Center, Memphis, Tennessee DIRECTOR

2000 - Present

Summer Writing Institute at Rhodes College, Memphis, Tennessee DIRECTOR (Co-director 2000-2001)