

Asian Studies Program

Minor: Yes

Number of credits required for minor: 20 credits

For a complete listing of requirements for the minor, consult the College Catalogue.

Courses required for the minor and appropriate for beginning students:

Asian Studies 150: Themes in Asian Studies

Required courses in other departments:

In addition to AS 150, the minor requires four courses (200-level or above) chosen from at least two different departments that offer Asian Studies courses (History, International Studies, Modern Languages and Literature, Religious Studies, and Theatre).

Recommended courses in other departments: None

Elective courses appropriate for beginning students: None

Courses that close quickly:

Religion Studies 255: Living Religions in Today's World
Religion Studies 258: Topics in the History of Religions

Courses that must be taken in sequence: None

Courses that must be taken concurrently: None

Courses not to be taken concurrently: None

Courses with time-of-year limitations: None