

Latin American Studies

Degrees offered: BA

Minor: Yes

Courses appropriate for beginning students:

- Anthropology/Sociology 224
- Anthropology/Sociology 225
- Biology 160 (summer course / pre-requisites: Bio 130, Bio 131, or Chem 111; Spanish not required, but preferred)
- Economics 100
- History 261
- History 262
- International Studies 200
- Latin American Studies 200
- Spanish (level indicated by placement exam)

Courses required for majors and appropriate for beginning students:

- Anthropology/Sociology 224
- Anthropology/Sociology 225
- Economics 100
- History 261
- History 262
- International Studies 200
- Latin American Studies 200
- Spanish (level indicated by placement exam)

Required courses in other departments:

Latin American Studies is an interdisciplinary program.

Recommended courses in other departments:

Latin American Studies is an interdisciplinary program.

Latest time to begin a major and graduate on schedule:

Often students who have accumulated credits in one or more of the participating departments can complete remaining major requirements even if they declare an LAS major rather late.

AP credit:

None accepted for required major courses.

Courses that close quickly:

- History 262
- Intermediate (200-level) and lower advanced (301-306) Spanish courses.

Courses that must be taken in sequence:

- Spanish 201, Spanish 202

Courses that must be taken concurrently: none

Courses not to be taken concurrently: none

Courses with time-of-year limitations: none

Courses that don't count toward a major: NA