Roy Wilkins Gains Support Of Memphis NAACP As Negro Critics Hurl Charges At Him!

The Memphis NAACP is deeply divided over the leadership of its executive director, Roy Wilkins, and his policies. A group of prominent black leaders has called for Wilkins' resignation, citing concerns about his management style and his handling of internal conflicts. The NAACP's executive committee is scheduled to meet next week to discuss the matter further.

Bill Weathers Is UNCF Chairman

W.C. Bill Weathers has been named the new chairman of the United Negro College Fund (UNCF). Weathers, who is also the mayor of Memphis, is a strong advocate for increasing access to higher education for African Americans. He has pledged to work closely with UNCF to expand its programs and improve its outreach efforts.

Sneads End Long Dispute With Official Election

Sneads, a small town in southern Alabama, has finally settled a long-running dispute with official election results. The town had been refusing to conduct elections for several years, but after a recent court ruling, the town was forced to hold elections. The new mayor, who was elected in the recent election, has pledged to work with the state to ensure fair and transparent elections in the future.

Magicians Ready For Cage Opener

The Memphis Magic Company, one of the city's premier entertainment groups, is preparing to open its annual magic show season. The show features a variety of talented performers, including card tricks, mind reading, and illusions. The opening night performance will be held on Saturday evening.

Sad Ending For Mighty Melrose

The once bustling neighborhood of Melrose has fallen into decline in recent years. Many residents have moved away, and the once lively commercial district is now struggling. Some community leaders are working to revitalize the area, but the task is艰巨.

Inside Memphis

Memphis is a vibrant city with a rich history and culture. It is home to many famous landmarks, including the Memphis National Civil Rights Museum, which commemorates the historic events that took place in the city. The city is also known for its music scene, with many famous musicians having either started or gained fame in Memphis.

Fashion Show To Stress New Look

A fashion show will be held next month to promote a new clothing line for the season. The event will feature models showcasing the latest trends in fashion, and there will be a live auction to benefit a local charity.

Family Service To Celebrate Anniversary

A family service organization will be celebrating its 50th anniversary this year. The organization has been working to help families in the community for decades, and it has grown to serve hundreds of families each year.

Guess Who Visited Union Protective

The Union Pacific Protective Association, a local labor union, was visited by a surprise guest last week. The identity of the visitor is being kept confidential, but it is believed to be a high-ranking union official.

Two More Social Bills Controversies... There was some controversy surrounding the passage of two social bills last week, one of which addressed health care and the other focused on social policy. The bills were debated in the state legislature, and there were heated discussions about their merits.

There was no joy at Memphis High School on Tuesday morning. "It's been a tough week," said one student. "We've been dealing with a lot of stress, and it's been difficult to keep our minds on track. But we're trying to stay positive and focus on our studies."
Along The Sports Trail

BY SUE BROWN

The basketball season got under way this week with the start of practice for both boys and girls teams at small and large schools throughout the state. This is the time of year when athletes prepare for the rigors of the season and the hopes of a winning season.

CROWNING AND UNICORN AND JAMIE - Sunday Coon, 21, Jefferson, is now a coach at Sweetwater High School. Son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Coon, 723 Rose St., he has served as a football coach at South Heights High School since 1980. His first year as head football coach, he led his team to a berth in the state championships. His first year as head basketball coach, he led his team to a berth in the state championships.

HAMILTON CATS ON THE GO-GO - The basketball season is under way and the Hamilton Cats are looking forward to a successful season. The team is led by seniors Cassie Montgomery and Sarah Williams, who will be key players on the court. The Cats' record so far is 2-0.

CROWNING AND UNICORN AND JAMIE - Jamie, 21, Jefferson, is now a coach at Sweetwater High School. Son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Coon, 723 Rose St., he has served as a football coach at South Heights High School since 1980. His first year as head football coach, he led his team to a berth in the state championships. His first year as head basketball coach, he led his team to a berth in the state championships.

Good Neighbors Youth Foundation Holds Meet - The Good Neighbors Youth Foundation recently held a meet to raise funds for their annual scholarship program. The meet was held at the Good Neighbors Youth Foundation gym and was attended by over 100 people. The track team from the local high school took part in the meet.

LaRose Observes Education Week - LaRose Obser...
Middle Baptist Presents Recital

Great Middle Baptist Church, late Monday, launched its first public event of the new year with a concert of spirituals and songs of freedom, entitled "Black History: Marching to the Beat of Freedom." The concert took place in the church's main sanctuary, with over 200 guests in attendance.

President Dr. J. E. Nance opened the program, welcoming everyone and expressing gratitude for the support of the church. "We are grateful to all who have contributed to the success of our church, and we hope to continue this momentum in the coming year," he said.

The program featured a vocal quartet from the church's music ministry, singing a medley of songs that celebrated African American history and struggle.

After the quartet's performance, the Reverend Dr. E. J. Thompson, the church's senior pastor, took the stage to address the audience.

"It is our duty as a community to remember the sacrifices made by those who came before us," he said. "We must continue to fight for justice and equality, as we celebrate the achievements of our predecessors.

The concert ended with a rousing rendition of "We Shall Overcome," sung by the entire congregation.

The event was sponsored by the church's education and youth departments, with funds raised to support local scholarships and community programs.

For more information about future events at Middle Baptist Church, please visit www.middlebaptistchurch.org or call 555-1234.
Education Should Take Priority

The trend toward more reports that two days of student strike at Springfield College has ended. A teacher at Springfield College, according to the college president, was seen carrying a sign. The president of Springfield College was of such proportion that the sign could not be seen from a distance.

A statement quoted President Albert Stanley Tuesday evening revealed that students and faculty members had reached an accord on the administration of the college. The president of Springfield College was of such proportion that the sign could not be seen from a distance.

Trial Of Sen. Kennedy's Accused

Victor May Be Delayed Until '69

By Jack V. Paul

LUCAS COUNTY (Cleve) The state charging that Sen. Robert F. Kennedy was involved in an automobile accident that killed a man in Lucas County is reported to be on the agenda for the trial of the case. The state has 10 defendants in the case, and the accused are all charged with manslaughter.

The trial is set for March 9, and the state is scheduled to open its case on March 10.

Walkout On 'Diss' Results In Filing Federal Court Case

The walkout of the 'Diss' students, which began on Tuesday, is reported to be continuing with the state of Ohio filing a federal court case against the students.

The state is seeking an injunction to prevent the students from continuing their strike until the state has had an opportunity to present its case.

The walkout began on Tuesday, and the state is scheduled to present its case on March 10.

Magicians Ready

With Clevenger, Clevenger, and Clevenger

The magic show, which is scheduled to begin on Saturday, will feature Clevenger, Clevenger, and Clevenger. The show is scheduled to start at 7:30 p.m. and will feature a variety of magic tricks.

The show is scheduled to begin on Saturday, and will feature Clevenger, Clevenger, and Clevenger. The show is scheduled to start at 7:30 p.m. and will feature a variety of magic tricks.

Santos End

(Cleveland News Press, April 2, 1969)

The Santos end of the story, which began with the police raid on the Santos home, is reported to be coming to a close.

The police raid on the Santos home, which began with the police raid on the Santos home, is reported to be coming to a close.

Family Service

(Cleveland News Press, April 2, 1969)

Family Service is a social service agency that provides assistance to families in need. They offer a variety of services, including counseling, financial assistance, and referrals to other agencies.

Family Service is a social service agency that provides assistance to families in need. They offer a variety of services, including counseling, financial assistance, and referrals to other agencies.

Fashion Show

(Cleveland News Press, April 2, 1969)

The fashion show, which is scheduled to begin on Saturday, will feature a variety of fashion designers. The show is scheduled to start at 7:30 p.m. and will feature a variety of fashion designers.

The fashion show, which is scheduled to begin on Saturday, will feature a variety of fashion designers. The show is scheduled to start at 7:30 p.m. and will feature a variety of fashion designers.
Face Lifting Ordered By W. A. For NATO Defense Organization

By L. D. TIKOFF

Washington, DC - The NATO Defense Organization (NATO) has set its sights on a face-lifting program for the coming year, with a major emphasis on improving the organization's image and efficiency. The program is expected to include a range of initiatives, from technology upgrades to personnel training, aimed at making NATO a more effective and modern force.

The NATO Defense Organization, established in 1949, is a military alliance that includes 30 member countries, with the primary goal of maintaining a collective defense against threats. Over the years, NATO has undergone several changes, but the current focus is on making it a more relevant and effective organization.

Singer Joan Baez Sees Street Violence As Stupid

Singer Joan Baez sees street violence as "stupid." Speaking on stage to a capacity audience of 15,000 at the Starlight Bowl in Los Angeles, Baez said: "Violence is a stupid way to solve problems. It's not a solution. We need to find ways to resolve our differences peacefully." Baez has been a vocal critic of violence and has used her music to promote peace and understanding.

U.S. Expects Broadened Peace Talks To Embrace South Vietnam

The U.S. government is reportedly preparing to broaden the scope of peace talks with North Vietnam, which are currently focused on North Vietnamese withdrawal from South Vietnam. The new talks are expected to address issues such as political rights and economic development, as well as military disengagement.

Diana Ross, Supremes Star In Their Own "T.G.I.F." T.V. Show

Jack Noel: flies 6,000 miles a week on business

Jack Noel, a first officer with American Airlines, flies 6,000 miles a week on business. And it's no coincidence that Coca-Cola is always near. In flight from east coast to west coast and back a week, Dr. at home where the office resides with Coke. You see no matter where he is Jack knows he can count on Coca-Cola... Coke has the taste you never get tired of.
Save 7c. It's a good American deal.
Football's Judgment Day Ahead
For Clark-Morris Brown Squads

RICHIE GUERIN rehabilitating by Atlantic Hawks

Savannah State To Play in Georgia Invitational

Elected to NET
John H. Franklin
Board Of Directors