Odel Horton Kept His Cool
All The Way Up The Ladder

"I'm not in as much trouble this morning as I was yesterday," said Odel Horton, the head of the Memphis chapter of the Democratic Club. "I'm not in any trouble at all. I'm just keeping my cool as usual." This was Odel Horton's response to a recent dispute with the Republican Club.

"I'm not in any trouble at all," he continued. "I'm just keeping my cool as usual." This was Odel Horton's response to a recent dispute with the Republican Club.

While it is not uncommon for politicians to keep their cool in the face of controversy, Odel Horton's ability to remain calm is legendary. He has been known to speak with a soothing voice and to exude a sense of control even in the most chaotic situations.

International Nursing Center Proposed At Emory University

By MARK ANDERSON

Atlanta, April 15, 1969 — A plan for the construction of a new international center where specific educational programs would be offered in the field of nursing has been announced by the International Nursing Foundation, Inc., at Emory University. The foundation has received a $50,000 grant from the American Red Cross to finance the project.

The new center will be located in the EMORY UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF NURSING building and is expected to provide a center for educational programs in the field of nursing from around the world. The center will offer opportunities for nurses from different countries to exchange knowledge and experience.

Proposes To Select Committee Heads By Seniority

Dr. MARVIN R. BASHO

A new proposal has been presented at Emory University that proposes to select committee heads by seniority. The idea is to ensure that the most experienced members of the committee are given the position of head. The proposal will be discussed at the next meeting of the committee.

Rita Robinson: She leads the two-career life.

With Coke is what I do all the rest. A successful publishing executive at Time, Inc., she’s also a devoted wife and mother of three kids. Both careers require equal time. And yet, Mrs. Robinson manages to balance. Of course, she always has plenty of Coke on hand to help her keep her going. It’s only in reason because Coke has the taste she never gets tired of. That’s why things go better with Coke.
