World Christian Pilgrims Travel To Bethlehem Amid Fears And Trappings Of War

Armed Israeli Soldiers Keep Watch Where Christ Was Born

BY JERRY ROHMAN

Bethlehem — (UPI) — Christian pilgrims from around the world Wednesday celebrated the birth of the Prince of Peace in this holy town of Bethlehem amid the rubble and rapine that are the staples of the Middle East wars.

During the Jordan war, while Bethlehem was in the Jordanian sector, more than 2,000 Christian pilgrims were allowed to visit the birthplace of Jesus. Now few are allowed to visit the Holy Land. Israeli soldiers keep a 24-hour watch around the Church of the Nativity, where it is believed Jesus was born.

Bethlehem, which was looted and pillaged by Jordanian forces in Jordanian occupation, was returned to Israel on Sunday.

The church was looted and bombed.

Bilateral goodwill efforts were trapped by the hostilities.

In Jerusalem, Israeli government officials said there would be no governmental relations with Israel until a peace agreement with Jordan is reached.

A Jordanian military commuting bus was destroyed and sports stadium was burned.
